FIG. 6

FIG. 6 is a perspective view of a multi-layered structure 40. The structure 40 includes a top layer 49 and a bottom layer 38, separated by a central vertical section 33. A hole 28 is formed in the top layer 49, and a hole 37 is formed in the bottom layer 38. Arrows 31, 35, and 39 point downwards into holes 28, 33, and 37, respectively. Arrows 36 point upwards from the bottom layer 38. A dashed box 38 is shown within the bottom layer 38. Four vertical rods 6 are positioned above the structure, with dashed lines 31, 35, and 39 indicating their vertical alignment with the holes.
